Wife Arrives to Return Long to Louisiana

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Earl K. Long arrived in a Louisiana Air National Guard plane today to take her husband, the Louisiana governor, back home. Mrs. Long was accompanied by three doctors, Maj. Gen. Raymond Hufft, and Mrs. William Lockhart, the governor's executive secretary. Hufft is adjutant general of Louisiana.

Mrs. Long told newsmen that soon as things can be gotten ready, they would leave.

Long should be newsmen from his second floor room in the psychiatric clinic of John Sealy Hospital earlier today that the group would leave for Oschner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans at 11 a.m.

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP)—Gov. Earl K. Long was expected to leave a mental clinic here today and fly to his home state of Louisiana.

But, if all goes as expected, the 63-year-old governor will be hospitalized again soon after he lands.

Long, whose confinement in John Sealy Hospital started 19 days ago, is scheduled to enter famed Oschner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans, Hospital Director Dr. Guy Caldwell confirmed the arrangements.

The move is regarded as a compromise, Gov. Long, confined unwillingly in Galveston, said he would consent to treatment in Louisiana.

Ike Refuses to Call Both Sides to Steel Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today rejected proposals that he call representatives of the steel companies and their employees to a White House conference with the aim of avoiding a possible strike.

As he has in the past, Eisenhower made it clear he believes there should be no government intervention in the collective bargaining process now under way between the steel workers' union and the companies.

With that in mind, a reporter asked whether the President might consider calling the representatives of both sides to a White House meeting in an effort to create a "climate of accommodation."

Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) urged Tuesday that such a meeting be set up. Symington spoke in Philadelphia at a meeting of the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Department.

Eisenhower replied that we have some historical background for that kind of conference. Without mentioning the name of former President Harry Truman, Eisenhower noted that there had been an attempt to seize the steel plants, an action later declared invalid by the Supreme Court.

Eisenhower said he believes that for the government to get involved in the collective bargaining process would be more harmful than helpful.

But the President said he wanted to urge again that each side keep in mind the stake the American people have a reasonable settlement of the wage controversy. He said the welfare of 175 million people is a lot more important than the issues directly involved in the dispute.

Crew Relates Attack by MiG Fighters

By JOHN RODERICK

YOKOSUKA, Japan (AP)—A U.S. Navy plane crew told today how Communist MiG fighters raked their patrol plane with 25 to 20 bursts of machinegun fire and sent it limping home with two of its four engines out and one of the 14 crewmen wounded.

The airman told a news conference two "or possibly three" Red-stained jets—their nationality still a mystery—had swooped down suddenly on the turbo-prop P4M Marauder while it was over international waters, 45 miles off the east coast of North Korea Tuesday.

The tail gun was knocked out and the gunner wounded on the second of six Communist runs before he could open fire. The plane's two other 20mm. machineguns were unable to fire because of missing parts.

The attack was broken off as the plane started to limp back to Japan. It was met by two Air Force Sabre jet fighters that answered its call for help, but the MiGs had vanished long before.

The injured tail gunner, Aviation Electronics Mate 3C, Donald E. Corder, 20, of Jacksonville and Farmer City, Ill., suffered more than 40 painful but not critical wounds from shrapnel and flying plexiglass. He was hit in the neck and hands and suffered a fracture of the kneecap and a head wound.

Rear Adm. Frederic S. Withington, commander of U.S. naval forces in Japan, said emphatically, "S. patrols would continue in the area."

"We are not going to admit that the sea of Japan is a Russian lake," he declared.

But the admiral said he did not plan to send fighter escorts to the patrol planes, explaining "that would be more provocative than useful."

Withington said it was the first time a Navy aircraft had been so badly damaged and still returned to base. In 11 previous brushes between Communist and American planes in the Far East, some Air Force crews have made it home, but previous Navy planes have been lost.

The admiral interrupted the news conference to read a telegram from Washington awarding the Distinguished Flying Cross to the plane's 35-year-old commander, Lt. Cmdr. Donald R. Mayer of Littlefield, Conn., for his feat in bringing his aircraft and crew back.

Allies in a Final Bid for Berlin Agreement; Summit Meet Unlikely

Seems Impasse Reached, Says the President

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the Geneva foreign ministers talks seem to have reached an impasse, and prospects for a summit conference are no brighter.

The President told a news conference, however, that he still would be willing to go to a heads-of-government meeting if any kind of reasonable progress can be made at Geneva.

And, Eisenhower said in response to a question, that he doesn't necessarily mean there must be progress specifically on the Berlin situation.

He said he has in mind any kind of reasonable progress on East-West problems generally.

The President was asked whether he believes that prospects for a summit conference have grown dimmer in the last couple of weeks.

Explains Why Teachers Are Retiring

By JOHN RODERICK

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two state officials yesterday gave varying reasons for an increase in the number of teachers seeking retirement.

"I definitely think there is in the (school) system is forcing many of these teachers to retire as soon as they become eligible," Hoyte R. Pyle, director of the Teacher Retirement System, told the state Retirement Board.

Education Commissioner Arch Ford disagreed. Ford said teachers were retiring at 60 so they could get other jobs and qualify for Social Security payments before they are 65.

Pyle told the board at least 200 teachers had asked to be retired, effective July 1, compared to 149 in 1958 and 109 in 1957. Minimum retirement age is 60 with 20 years of teaching service. Retirement is mandatory at 72.

Pyle said early retirements and the state's inability to attract and hold younger teachers posed a threat to the Teacher Retirement System which is supported by contributions from 15,000 active teachers and state grants.

There are now 1,160 teachers eligible to retire because they are past 60, Pyle said.

Coyle Bros. Caught, One Shot to Death

By JOHN RODERICK

MIDDLEBORO, Mass. (AP)—The Coyle brothers, subject of Massachusetts' biggest manhunt, were captured today in woods about half a mile from where they held up a liquor store Monday.

Shortly afterward at St. Luke's Hospital, William Coyle, 28, died of police bullets. His brother, John, 24, was not wounded.

The brothers had fled Philadelphia after allegedly killing a policeman. They kidnapped a hostage, William Sedgwick, 40, and drove him to Middleboro.

Invaders Again Threatening Nicaragua

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP)—New invasion threats from two directions were reported Tuesday night by President Luis Somoza, whose government has just finished off a group of rebels that invaded Nicaragua two weeks ago.

The 38-year-old president, whose family has ruled this Central American republic for 33 years, said one new set of invaders is based in Honduras and consists of about 50 men.

He was not certain whether it had actually crossed Nicaragua's northern border and sent units of his well trained army to check.

The other group is getting ready to strike with about 200 men from neighboring Costa Rica, probably in about two weeks, Somoza said.

He said the Honduras-based group is under the command of Rafael Somarriba, a Nicaraguan National Guard lieutenant. 10 years ago, Somoza charged it was formed and trained in Cuba of mercenaries from several Caribbean countries.

He claimed both groups contain members of the Caribbean Legion, an outfit purportedly dedicated to the overthrow of dictatorships. The contingent in Honduras, he charged, is financed by Communists and armed by Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government.

Somoza said the Costa Rican group is at Santa Elena Bay, near the border of Nicaragua. He charged that force is backed by Marcelino Aguiluz, a Costa Rican congressman.

Costa Rica was the base for the rebels who invaded Nicaragua earlier this month. The president said one member of that force had been killed and 105 captured. Four are unaccounted for.

Russia Asks a 24-Hour Delay for Answer

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

GENEVA (AP)—The West presented its 11th-hour bid for a temporary agreement to end the Berlin crisis today. The Soviet Union withheld reaction and the Big Four foreign ministers agreed to meet in another secret session Thursday. Russia asked a 24-hour delay to answer.

U. S. secretary of State Christian A. Herter and his Quaker allies were prepared to "blink" the conference to a close within a few days unless Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko showed serious interest in the plan.

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
GENEVA (AP)—Success of failure of the Big Four foreign ministers' conference turned today on Andrei Gromyko's reaction to a new Western offer for a face-saving deal on Berlin.

The Soviet Foreign minister was to give his answer to the latest Western proposal in secret session with his opposite numbers from the United States, Britain and France.

If Gromyko says yes—or even maybe—the Geneva meeting soon may produce an agreement leading to an early East-West summit conference. The Western price for that is an end to the Soviet threat to freeze the Allies out of West Berlin.

If Gromyko says no, the foreign ministers' conference probably will end Thursday or Friday without an agreement to go to the summit. This would revive the threat of serious trouble over the future of West Berlin, surrounded by Communist territory 110 miles from West Germany.

Incomes Up to a Record, U. S. Reports

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government announced today that the personal income of all Americans rose in May to a record annual rate of $370,200,000,000. This increase for the month was three billion on an annual basis.

Secretary of Commerce Louis L. Strauss issued a special statement which said:

"This high level of purchasing confidence is a basis for the business confidence so generally evident, and for the strong hope for further increases in employment."

The Commerce Department report was the second this week to point up the transition of the economy from recovery to a new boom. The Federal Reserve Board announced Monday that industrial production advanced to a high last month.

Personal income in May was up for—in a period of virtually no change—a year's basis from May 1957. "Each month this year," Strauss said, "has shown a higher rate of personal income than the one before, with durable goods industries alteration in the consumer price level."

The report said the surge in income from a year ago represents for the most part real gains in the buying power of the average American, inasmuch as retail prices advanced only fractionally during the interim.

Most of the May increase in income was in wages and salaries which were up 2 1/2 billion dollars to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $255,800,000,000.

The report said payroll advances centered in manufacturing, with durable goods industries scoring particularly sharp gains. Metals and machinery manufacturing showed the biggest increases.

men fired into the woods as they were surprised by police after the liquor store job.
 A posse of up to 400 men—state troopers, conservation officers, FBI agents and area police—hau-

Monday morning.

Shortly before 9 a.m. today, police received a call from Walter Schmidt of Union City, N.J., who was visiting his mother-in-law, Victoria Canova, just off Route 28. The robbed liquor store is just up the road.

In seconds, a police car, with two troopers in it, arrived at the Canova house.
 Trooper John Lacasse of New Bedford one of the policemen who shot down young Coyle said: "We walked in the woods there and I saw them crouched down in a thicket about 25 feet away. Trooper Paul Keating, who was right beside me, yelled. They fired a shot or two at us then we fired back."

"The younger one was shot in the head."

Lacasse took two revolvers from the wounded brother.

The brothers originally were wanted for holding up a supermarket on Cape Cod last December.

On June 5, while he was patrolling his beat in North Philadelphia, Officer James F. Kane was shot down. Police learned the Coyle had an apartment nearby, which they found many milk bottles which had been stolen from steps in the neighborhood.

The next day the brothers kidnapped Sedgwick in his own car. The brothers have been indicted for Kane's murder. They also were charged everytime they ever were arrested.

MIDDLEBORO, Mass. (AP)—ria Canova in South Middleboro, deep woods since Monday for the slaying of a Philadelphia policeman, were captured today by a squad of state troopers.

First reports said William Coyle, 22, was wounded. His brother, John, 24, was reported unharmed.

A telephone call from a house just off Route 28, where the search has been concentrated, led to the climax of the biggest manhunt in Massachusetts history.

Walter Schmidt of Union City, N.J., tipped police. He and his wife were visiting at the home of Mrs. Schmidt's mother, Victoria Canova, in South Middleboro, when he saw two men prowling around outside.

He said one man was crawling on his hands and knees near a garage. Schmidt called the police.

Half a dozen squad cars were at the Canova home in seconds. The troopers burst into the woods and opened fire.

One brother was carried out of the woods on a stretcher.

The brothers apparently had broken into a house trailer in the hunt and obtained food and fresh clothing.

They drove here from Philadelphia with a hostage, William Sedgwick, 48, whom they kidnapped in his own car. Sedgwick escaped after the brothers held up a highway liquor store Monday. The brothers fled into the woods.

Bruce Hickok returned to inspect his home on the perimeter of the woods and found his dog had been slept in, food had been cooked and some of his clothing stolen.

More than 350 state and local police, FBI agents and conservation officers had sought the Coyle's. An Air Force helicopter and two county-owned planes assisted from the air.

The Coyle brothers escaped into

As the pair fled, Sedgwick stumbled from his automobile and related a tale of 10 days as a captive of the brothers.

In the dining room, the table was covered with a cloth of pink net and tulle and there was an arrangement of pink daisies in the center. Miss Anna Whitman assisted Miss Helms in serving the cakes and punch.

Mrs. Billy Lynn Tramm Wedding Is Solemnized Here

The First Presbyterian Church was the setting for the ceremony on June 13, which joined Miss Sarah Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Robinson of Hope, and Billy Lynn Tramm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Lennis, of Hope, in holy matrimony.

Before an altar decorated with baskets of white stocks, greenery, and gardenias, Dr. L. J. Lawrence performed the double-ring ceremony. Pre-nuptial music that played during the service was provided by Mrs. R. L. Gosnell, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gown in exquisite silk organza over tulle. The dress was designed with a long stem bodice appliqued with pearl beaded. Alencon lace medallions, the graceful portrait neckline was trimmed with lace, seed pearls, and sequins. Gathered onto the bodice, the voluminous skirt was centered with the beaded lace medallions, and it drifted to form a formal court train. With the short-sleeved wedding dress, the bride wore short white gloves and carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias.

Mrs. John Asher Hudson of El Dorado was her sister's maid of honor, and Miss Susan DeLoe of Dallas, Texas, was the junior bridesmaid for their aunt. The attendants were identically attired in gowns of petal pink organza. The oval shaped neckline was accented in front by a self rose and elbow length sleeves. A molded bodice was enhanced by a full, wide length skirt. They each carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Serving the bride as best man was Bobby Tramm of Wilson, Arkansas. James Powell, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, T. J. McAttee, Joe McAttee, all of Wilson, and Van Moore, the candles were also lighted by T. J. and Joe McAttee.

A reception in the church parlor followed the ceremony, here the bride's table was overlaid with a white net and satin cloth and centered with an epergne which held gardenias and white candles. Miss Judy Robins, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Victor Davis of Waco, Tex., Miss Gail Cook, and Mrs. Bruce Alkman served the punch and the dried wedding cake.

Mrs. Scott DeLoe of Dallas, Texas, sister of the bride, and Mrs. James Powell of Wilson, sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the bride's book. Assisting in serving at the reception were Miss Marlene Sulcer of Forrest City, Miss Sarah Jane Melton of Maudlin, Mo., Miss Gail Turner of Harrison, Miss Ann Buchanan of El Smith, Miss Mona Hughes of Jonesboro, Mrs. Van Moore, Mrs. W. W. Petty, Mrs. W. Y. Foster, Mrs. Frank Russell, and Mrs. Roy Anderson.

The entire ensemble which the bride chose for travel was beige, and she pinned a gardenia corsage at her shoulder. When the newlyweds return from a wedding trip to New Orleans and the Gulf Coast, they will make their home in Fayetteville, where they are students at the university.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding and the reception included Mrs. B. E. Ross of Kewanee, Mo., grandmother of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Betts and George Betts, all of Camden, Misses Jenny and Margaret Betts and Mrs. Kenneth Leslie, all of Texarkana. Mrs. T. J. McAttee, Jr. of Wilson; Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Bailey of Osceola; Mrs. Dale Wood and Mrs. Walter Locke, both of Magnolia; James W. Cantley of Denver, Colo.; Miss Pat Bridges of Warren; Miss James M. Hudson of Emmet; Mrs. J. J. Battle, Miss Marie Roysen, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cox, all of Hope.

For the devotion Miss Susan Davis sang a beautiful rendition of "Open My Eyes That I May See," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Jim Edwards. The program explained how everyone can be a missionary and it was in charge of Mrs. Hinton Davis. She was assisted by Mrs. Donover Dickinson, Miss Mary Louise Copeland, and Mrs. Effie Jones.

After the group had joined in singing "Can the World See Jesus in You?" a prayer by the late Rev. Peter Marshall was read by Miss Lassetter. Then an informal song fest was enjoyed by all as they sang numerous hymns.

Tasty snacks and lead punch were served as refreshments to the Guild members and two guests, Mrs. Edwards and Miss Marie Vickers.

DOROTHY DIX

Sailor's Wife Is at Sea
Over Weekends With Kids

Dear Dorothy Dix:

My in-laws live about an hour's drive from our home. We have five children, are under eight, and number six is on the way. My husband's folks want me to spend long weekends with them while my husband is at sea. I don't mind going early in the morning and spending the day, but packing for five youngsters, two of whom are not yet trained, is too much for me. At home they have a large playground and a fenced-in yard. At my mother-in-law's it's necessary to watch them every single minute. She has very nice things, too, so I have to be doubly careful to keep the kids out of trouble. My in-laws have been very kind to me and I don't want to hurt their feelings. The older children visit them for week-long vacations.—A.B.

Dear A.B.: Your husband must have been an only child, otherwise I'm sure his mother would remember what a chore it is to travel or visit with young children. She must be a grand person, though, to want you all so much. Tell her you certainly don't want to hurt her but, in your present condition, you find it so much easier to watch the youngsters at home. She should understand without putting you in a difficult position. Always remember, children have a habit of growing up very fast and it will only be a short time before you can travel with ease—and dryness.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I'm the youngest of four sisters, none of whom has married. I'm engaged and my father says he won't spend more for my wedding than he can afford for the others. I'm working, making an average salary, and think it's up to my parents to give me a nice wedding. Am I right?—D.B.

Dear D.B.: Every girl wants a nice wedding but many girls think a "nice" wedding must be expensive. Your Dad is right. If he gives you a big blow-out, he must follow through for the others. Furthermore, lots of girls help with their own wedding expenses. With three sisters and your salary, you should be able to handle many of the details yourself. If your family has sewing, cooking and decorating talents, you can have a nice wedding and reception for very small cost.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I'm 16 and very much in love with a boy of 22. He likes me but doesn't want to go steady, as he thinks he's to young to be tied down. He wants to date other girls. I hate to think of losing him but also hate seeing him with other girls. Should I drop him, or wait until he gets tired of running around?—Louella

Dear Louella: You are also to young to be tied down. Follow our friend's example date other boys and have fun. Let the future take care of itself. You might find someone else who is vastly more interesting.

German Center Nearly Immune From Attack

By VERN HAUGLAND
Associated Press Aviation Writer

KAISERSLAUTERN, Germany (AP)—An air war control center, as nearly immune from atomic attack as a structure can be, is hearing completion deep inside a mountain, not far from this West German town.

Known as the Combat Operation Center of the Advance Echelon Headquarters of the U.S. Air Force in Europe, the complex of tunnels was inspected by a party of U.S. newsmen touring NATO installations in Europe. Col. Edward S. F. Newbury of Bakersfield, Calif., director of the center, said the German center for will turn over the completed project to the U.S. command in about three weeks. The underground headquarters is already in operation.

The center maintains an air defense screen over the central part of Europe day and night to protect the Atlantic Alliance from sneak attack.

Manned by a staff of 125, the center constantly plots by radar all air movements within its area of responsibility on both sides of the Iron Curtain. It can dispatch tactical air weapons at a moment's notice.

As newsmen watched, more than 30 unidentified aircraft were being tracked on the far side of

Group Okays Increase in Debt Limit

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Ways and Means Committee today approved President Eisenhower's request for a temporary one-year increase in the public debt limit to a record, peacetime high of 265 billion dollars.

It took no action on his related request for repeal of the interest ceiling on long-term government bonds. This will get further consideration.

The committee also voted to raise the permanent debt ceiling from 263 to 265 billion dollars, instead of the 268-billion top proposed by the President.

The actual debt stands at nearly 260 billion.

The Iron Curtain in Czechoslovakia and East Germany.

"It is a beautiful, clear day and the Communists are doing a lot more flying around than usual," Newbury said.

The center is housed in three parallel corridors, 450 feet long, tunneled horizontally into the mountain. Sixty-seven long, narrow rooms are air conditioned with equipment designed to filter out radioactive material.

German engineers drilled three tunnels at the site from 1937 to 1939 for ammunition storage. The German west front command occupied the tunnels from 1944 until the end of World War II, after which the French used them as an ammunition depot.

The American Air Force started using the tunnels as a combat operations center in 1954.

Railroad trains in Switzerland have an anti-slip brake which removes the need for sanding rail lines before trains can pass through high, snow-covered mountain passes.

"There is apparently someone in Honolulu who knows of the existence of that old Job Hammer story. Suppose the man who murdered Phineas Redd is still alive, and that your deed contains some information that he fears? Had Ben seen your deed?"

Kathie shook her head. "I left it in a safe-deposit box in Honolulu."

He considered thoughtfully. "Suppose Ben guessed the secret of your deed? Suppose it told the name of the murderer?"

"Then you do think her death was not an accident?" she asked. "I'm merely considering the possibilities," Alex said impatiently.

Kathie shivered. "But why would knowing the name of the murderer excite Ben?" she asked, after a moment. "What would she do with it?"

"I must see your deed, Kathie," he said urgently. "You simply have to trust me with it. If Ben could guess its secret, perhaps I can read it."

Fear was welling up in her again. "I don't see," Alex said impatiently. "When was it dated? Can you tell me?"

She shook her head. "As she hesitated, he cried impatiently. 'Kathie, do you think you're safe with a secret like that in your possession? Can't you see it's for you I'm doing it? If anything should happen to you—'

"Good morning," Lellani said faintly behind them.

Alex's hands dropped, and he turned to the other girl. She looked ethereally lovely. Kathie thought, her face mask-like with violet shadows under her eyes, a frilly pink negligee only, pretending to conceal the curves of her figure.

"Darling," Alex said gently. "How do you feel? Were you able to sleep?"

"I think I'm still asleep," Lellani said, putting her hands to her forehead with an expression of pain. She ignored Kathie. "Alex, you won't leave me, will you?" she said appealingly. "I need you so."

"I'm here," Alex said, as tenderly as he would have spoken to a child.

Oh, Alex, Alex, Kathie thought in desperation. She murmured something about getting dressed, but she was not sure either of them had heard her as she escaped from the room.

As she showered and then dressed in her cool blue linen, Kathie's thoughts scurried frantically.

When she returned to the living room, Alex was answering the telephone. He put it down. Lellani was not there.

A thought had come to Kathie, and she came close to the telephone.

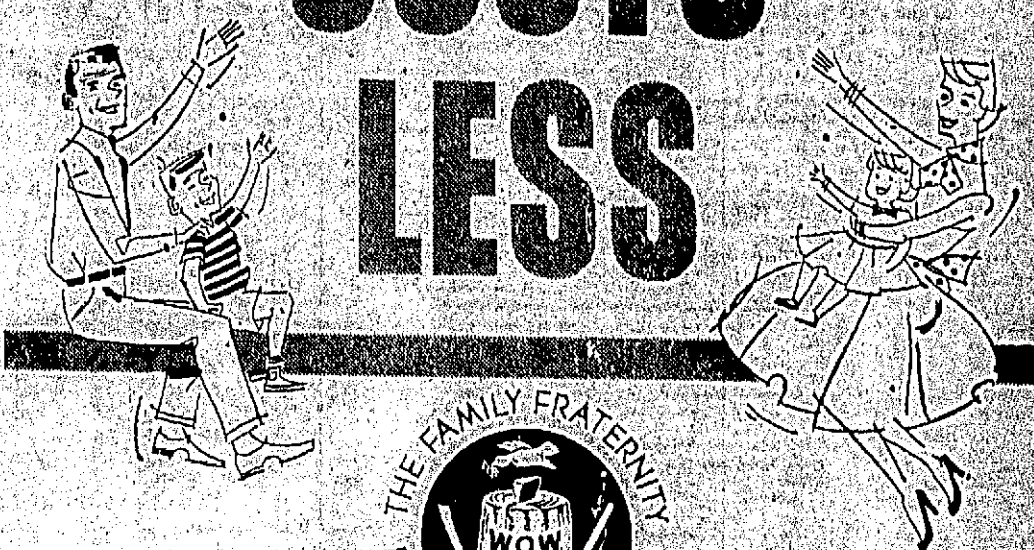

"Alex, if the man who murdered Phineas Redd is still alive, he would be an old man, wouldn't he? At least as old as Uncle Job was?"

Alex nodded, his eyes alert. "Sam's grandfather must have been in Honolulu 40 years ago."

Sam had walked into the living room in time to overhear her. "So," he said. "Alex, grandfather?"

From 40 to 45 years ago, he snapped, almost savagely. (To Be Continued)

Newcombe Has Become Ace of the Redlegs

Associated Press Sports Writer

There were snickers last spring when Manager Mayo Smith figured the big guy on his pitching staff might be Don Newcombe. Since Newk had won 27 in 1958, Bill, he was washed up, hadn't been able to win 20 over two seasons since.

Newk, who's the ace of the Reds staff, Big Newk, winner of six straight complete games, with 13.00 earned run average and 4-0 against the slugging San Francisco Giants after he chopped them down again Tuesday night 2-1.

It was Newcombe's seventh victory of the season, matching his total for last year when he lost 13. This on the cusp of the Giant two games behind the National League leading Milwaukee Braves who came off with a 5-4 victory at Los Angeles.

Pittsburgh tightened its hold on third just behind the Chicago Cubs 2-1. St. Louis swept a two-night pair from Philadelphia, 4-1 and 5-2.

In the American League, Cleveland made it seven in a row, 4-1 at Boston, and took a full game lead over Chicago's second-place White Sox beaten 5-1 at New York. Detroit at Baltimore and Kansas City at Washington were rained out.

Newk, who hasn't lost since he dropped his fourth May 10, stretched the Giants slump to three games with a six-hitter, walking none and striking out three. The sixth-place Reds didn't give him a lead until they roughed up Mike McCormick for both runs in the eighth inning on Vada Pinson's 11th homer, a single by Frank Robinson and a double by Frank Thomas.

Lew Burdette won his 10th for the Braves, but failed to go the distance for the fifth time in a row. When the Dodgers shut out for seven frames, scored twice in the ninth, John Rossboro's double and a walk brought on reliever Don McMahon, who gave up a two-run single by Charlie Neal before getting Wally Moon on a pop up that ended it. Moon, who was 4-for-5, had tripled home a run and scored himself in a two-run eighth.

The Braves shut out for 12 innings before a bases-loaded walk gave them a two-out run in the first, wrapped it up with four runs in the seventh after two were out, ending Johnny Podres' winning string at five. Singles by Casey Wise, Hank Aaron, who slipped below 400 for the first time, and Frank Torre, and Del Crandall's two-run double did it.

Bob Friend (3-3) won it for the Pirates, who broke a 1-1 tie with four runs after two were out in the ninth. Don Honk's two-run double and Friend's two-run single beat Dave Hillman (3-5) as the Bucs won their fifth decision in the last six.

The Cards made it 8 out of 10 as Wilmer Mizell (8-3) beat the Phils in the opener and Ernie Broglio, who had lost five, won his first in the majors: Hal Smith homered in the opener for the Cards and Gino Cimoli hit a two-run homer in the first inning of the nightcap, clinched on Stan Musial's triple in the fourth.

Dave Philley homered and singled for both second game runs by the Phils, who managed only three runs despite 21 hits in the doubleheader. Ruben Gomez (1-4) and Jim Owens (4-4) were the losers.

Indians Riding Hottest Streak of Season

Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's Indians are riding their hottest streak of the season and Cal McLish is back in stride, a winner for the first time in more than a month, but still trying to shake a shutout jinx.

The big right-hander, whose lone whitewash job in the majors came eight years ago, pitched the Indians to their seventh straight success, and a full-game lead in the American League race with a 4-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox Tuesday night.

It was the fifth time this season McLish has come close to nailing that long-pursued second shutout. He missed by inches when Marty Kousser's 15th-inning drive knocked outfielder Rocky Colavito's glove and got away for a home run.

The New York Yankees helped Cleveland along by defeating Chicago's second place White Sox 5-1. Detroit at Baltimore and Kansas City at Washington were rained out.

In the National League, Milwaukee gained a two-game lead with a 5-4 victory at Los Angeles while second place San Francisco lost 2-1 to Cincinnati. Pittsburgh beat the Chicago Cubs 5-3, and St. Louis swept a two-night pair from Philadelphia, 8-1 and 5-2.

McLish, now 6-3, picked on his favorite pigeons. He beat the Red Sox for the fifth time in a row since last June 20, giving up six hits, walking but two and striking out six for his first complete game since May 8. He is 7-1 life against Boston.

The Indians plunked the Red Sox back into a last-place tie with Washington on a two-run homer by Dick Brown in the fifth inning. It was Brown's first of the year, but Cleveland's 18th in the streak.

One shy of the AL record for seven games held by the 1936 Yankees and 1940 Red Sox.

The Yankees moved within a single game of fourth place Baltimore behind the four-hit pitching of Art Ditmar (5-4), who won his fourth in a row. The Sox scored

Gunman Gives Up Meekly to the Police

CHARLESTON, Ill. (AP) — A berserk gunman who had held his half-sister hostage while a force of lawmen ringed his house laid down his arms and walked out without gunfire today.

Kenneth E. Adkins, 22, also released his half-sister, Mrs. Myra Irene Kennedy, 34, of Paris, with out harm.

The end of the tense vigil around the white frame house came after Mervin Bell, a lawyer talked with Adkins for about 10 minutes explaining his rights.

It came also as the force of lawmen were loading up for a blast on the house with tear gas. Authorities said they felt Adkins was giving them a run-around and might keep the community in turmoil for hours.

Adkins had held his half sister hostage, demanding the life of a policeman he hates in exchange for hers.

In an interview with John McCormick, a reporter of the Decatur Herald and Review, conducted through the screen door of the bungalow where the gunman was under siege, Adkins said: "That's all I want. I just want Cox."

He blamed Cox or "three-fourths of my troubles" and his parents — Mr. and Mrs. Walter Adkins the other four.

"They never spanked me when I needed discipline," Adkins said. "They always called the police, and Cox usually was the one that came."

"You can't raise children unless you discipline them yourself — not call the police to do it for you."

Boone he gave up, Adkins had demanded that Cox face up to him in a Western-style showdown.

Adkins, who has a record of arrest or assault and disorderly conduct, had a shotgun and file but did not use them.

His half-sister emerged unhurt during the tense siege. Police Chief Smokey Pacey of Charleston said Adkins had threatened to kill her if police tried to rush the house.

NEW YORK (AP) — A Philadelphia society girl left by plane Monday for Brazil to hunt jaguars.

With a spear she was accompanied by bearded Sasha Siemel, 60, a veteran hunter in Brazil's Mato Grosso jungle.

Touring Russia Means Taking 'Must' Items

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — "Must" items for American tourists in Russia are a bathtub stopper and a bar of soap, a group which will visit the Soviet Union was told yesterday.

Dr. H.E. Williams, president of Southern Baptist College at Walnut Ridge, said that both are in short supply.

Dr. Williams, who visited Russia last summer, will head the 14 members of the Arkansas delegation to the American Exhibition in Moscow next month.

Members of the group, which will leave July 15, are T. J. Robertson of Jonesboro; Dr. Stanley Gutowski of Perryville; Kendall Berry of Blytheville; Mr. and Mrs. Sol Cohn and Mrs. A. J. Curner of Forrest City; Roy Chaney, W. T. Robinson, Robert Sahn and Pat Henderson of England; Robert L. Dorch of Scott; Dr. W. O. Vaught Jr. Little Rock and Col. Claude E. Haswell of El Dorado.

The delegation voted to call itself the "Arkansas Travelers". It will spend a week at Moscow, then tour Russia and other parts of Europe before returning to the United States about Aug. 13.
